ACTRESS, COFOUNDER OF ROUGE NEW YORK, AND HAMPTONITE STEPHANIE MARCH SHARES HER PERFECT DAY OUT EAST—WHICH INCLUDES LOTS OF SHOPPING. BY CHRISTINA CLEMENTE

“It starts at Physique 57 (264 Butter Lane, Bridgehampton, 537-5722; Hamptons@physique57.com), where I am a devoted attendee. Carving out that fanny one barre at a time. After that, off to 27 Hampton Salon (27

*Hampton Road, Southampton, 377-3107; 27hamptonsalon.com) for a great blow-out and a “less is more” daytime beach look by our amazing Rouge artist in residence. Then a quick stop at some of my favorite shops, like Calypso

(21 Newtown Lane, East Hampton, 329-0033; calypso.stbarth.com) and Tiina the Store (216 Main St., Amagansett, 267-6200; tiinastore.com), for lovely little togs for lounging poolside or a late-summer party. There is so much home inspiration in the Hamptons, and I love a casual, not overly cute, beachy look. I’ll head to either The Line—Amagansett (154 Main St., Amagansett, 528-7236; theline.com) or JANGEORGE (11 Madison St., Sag Harbor, 899-4848; jangeorge.com) to pick up the perfect hostess gift for the evening’s festivities—which will likely be put together by Jill Gordon (PO Box 2227, East Hampton, 324-2422; jillgordon.celebrate.com). She is the absolute best for parties or events; her aesthetic is right up my alley, and her execution is terrific. If I’m not headed to an event, I’ll stop by Harbor Market & Kitchen (184 Division St., Sag Harbor, 725-4433; harbormarket.com). It’s the best way to casually entertain out East without having to cook.” ■
